Youth Choir brings Broadway to our Sanctuary presented by

YOUTH CHOIR

July 11, 5pm
In The Sanctuary

“Dear God. How did you know you were God?”
 “Dear God. Are you really invisible or is that just a trick?”
 “Dear God. How come you did all the miracles in the old days and you don’t do any now?”

“Children Deliver First-Class ‘Letters’! Delightful, funny, and touching stage adaptation. The show does best what the book did best by letting those voices come through loud and clear.”
 – Tom Sime, The Dallas Morning News

These are just some of the hard-hitting questions and tell-it-like-it-is revelations that make up “Children’s Letters to God”, the new Musical based on the international best-selling book. Inspired by the letters of young people writing to “the Big G,” “Children’s Letters to God” is family fun for all.

“IT’S WORTH WRITING HOME ABOUT! It has everything! Engaging characters, an energetic score, text and lyrics that range from cute and clever to poignant. For grown-ups, it fondly jogs the memory.”
 – Mark Lowry, Fort Worth Star-Telegram

Stuart Hample, the creator of the best selling book, has adapted “Children’s Letters to God” from the page to the stage with music by David Evans (Birds of Paradise) and lyrics by Douglas J. Cohen (No Way to treat a Lady).

Make sure to mark your calendars, and invite everyone you know for this amazing show, Sunday, July 11 at 5:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary. Following the show, stay and hang out for the Youth Group’s annual pie auction. The whole family can grab a hot dog and sample some of the talented baking members of this church offer every year.

As in the book, the musical is about kids and various events in their lives that lead them to ask a lot of questions — some funny, some serious, some surprising.
